“ Nancy & Family, please accept our condolences & Sympathy. Curtis Young was my dear friend we attended church together for many years. Today Dear, Jesus, as We grieve for the loss of my friend Curtis, I find comfort in the fact that You too grieve for him. You have watched soul after soul after soul fall prey to the enemy's lies.

Thank You, Jesus, for opening our ears to Your words, our eyes to Your truths, and our hearts to Your message. Thank You for allowing me to understand what truly awaits the ones who choose not to come. Thank You for the ones who sought me out to share the glorious news of eternal life through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. Curtis was one of them at Green Pond. Baptist Church he was a peach of a man..

Father, forgive us for being selfish with Your message of hope. Open our eyes to see the people of this world through Your eyes, so that we would move with urgency, carrying Your Banner of Hope, until the whole world hears. We ask these things in the Sweet Name of Jesus, Amen.

“ Prayer for you and your family during this time. Curtis is my 1st cousin and also my favorite. We used to sit for hours when he would come and visit when we were younger and he would tell us stories of the old home place and I loved him very much. He is resting peacefully now in the arms of Jesus and I know I will see him again. Love the picture displayed in the obituary that is how I remember seeing him the last time.
