“ I was attempting to contact Cynthia (that is what I always called her) to ask about a mutual friend. I am so heart broken to learn of her passing. I know none of you know who I am because Cynthia and I have not had a live or telephone conversation in almost 60 years. We met on the first day of school in the 8th grade (I think 1962). We became friends right away, and I fell in love for the first time in my young life. We went "steady for 2 or 3 years. Cynthia was the first girl I ever kissed, and she was the first girl to kiss me. We have talked over the internet a coupled of times in last 20 years but not recently. I know you are are feeling the pain of the loss of this wonderful woman. I feel the pain also. I don't know the details of what happened. I just know a special person in my life is gone. If you want to share any detail of her life with me, Contact me at vol sbest@aol.com or (352) 207-4661. God Bless Cynthia and Bob who gave her so much happiness as she told me.

“ I met Bob and Cindy when my brother John Married into the family. Didn't get to spend a lot of time with them, but always got a big hug when we did meet. She always was wearing a smile. We did chat on Facebook and found out our oldest children were born on the same day, same year. She thought that was cool. Will miss her when we go to SC to see Lynda. She was never far away. Sorry to see you gone, Cindy, but know you are in a much better place. Love to Katrice, Missy, Lynda, Sue and all of her grand babies. She loved them all. Bill & Sue (Sprowls) Kite

“ Recently Cindy came through to meet a need she didn't know I had. She told me that God had placed it on her heart to reach out to me and she did. Her generosity helped me meet this need and her compassion was great. No one knew about this and that was the way she wanted it. All the times she found needs in our community that our class could help meet, she never garnered any praise for herself. She just saw a need and a way it could be met. Such a gracious lady who showed in action was Jesus preached.

“ Cindy embodied the true meaning of a faithful Christian servant. Always dressed to the nines and a wonderful southern smile. She and Bob were very pivotal on my going into real estate for myself. I will always be very grateful for their friendship, love and compassion over the 18 years plus I was blessed to know them. Earth is a little dimmer for having lost this beautiful shining star, but I know Bob was at the Pearly gates waiting for his Love to join him!!! Heaven is an even more beautiful place now. God Bless and prayers to all of the family.
