“ R.I.P. Cindy. You were one of the nicest and friendliest people I've ever known and you always seemed to be in a good mood with a smile on your beautiful face, even while waging battling against ALS. I will truly miss seeing you over the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays and being with you at Lake Jocassee and Edisto Beach. While we'll all miss you here during our temporary earthly existence, I find comfort in knowing you are pain-free and in a better place at the right hand of God our Father in heaven. And, although I'm in no hurry to get there, I do look forward to seeing you again when our souls meet in the afterlife. Until then, I will think of you often and cherish the memories of the times we spent together.
