“ Dear Mary,

We can't express how sad and shocked we were to hear of Floyd's passing. We are so glad that the both of you had been a part of our time in Aiken. The time we spent with you and Floyd was always so enjoyable and interesting. I cannot tell you how many times we have repeated the story of Floyd's dog walking down the fairway at Augusta during the Masters. It's a great story for two midwesterners. Please know that our thoughts are with you.

“ Tiffany & The Boswell Family,

William Wallace once said "Every man dies. Not everyman really lives." Watching you smile while listening to you talk about time spent with and around Mr B, growing up, it was apparent he had lived, and he had lived a wonderful life at that. Take comfort in knowing that during the times that you miss him. My deepest sympathies go out to you and your family.

*To Renee, Joe, Joseph and Peggy,
We have always loved you, and Peggy and Floyd. There are memories that we shall cherish and keep with us until we also leave this earth. Our Heavenly Father will take us when He is ready. So we all must be ready! Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of need.
Much Love, Hugs, and Kisses
