“ My Aunt Dale lived Jesus in front of me for many many years. I remember calling her 2 weeks before my first year in Bible College was complete and asking her if she would pray about letting me live with her for the summer. She said she didn't need to pray about it and that i should just come on when classes were out. I was able to live at Aunt Dales home during all the summer and winter breaks from then on. I learned as much about Jesus in her home as did in Bible College. It was truly like I was seeing the New Testament lived out in front of me. For example: My father left us and divorced my mother when I was 11 years old, and it was very messy to say the least. I was going to visit him one summer while I was living at Aunt Dales. Aunt Dale was on my mothers side of the family. Aunt Dale had only canned a small number of fig and pear preserves that year from her fruit trees in the back yard. She remembered how much dad loved her home made preserves. She gave me a large jar of the fig and pear preserves and told me to tell my dad that they were from her and that she loved him. WHO DOES THAT???! I will tell you, someone who loved Jesus and modeled it no matter the circumstances. I felt more at home at Aunt Dale's than i did anywhere else. I love Aunt Dale and look foward to seeing you again when it is my turn to be promoted to Glory. Your great nephew, Ricky Birdsong.

“ Lydia and Julie, I knew your precious mother and she was such a sweet christian. She was a talented beautician and cook. I took Mrs. Pierce Farmer to get her hair done by your mother. She did not want anyone but Dale to do her hair. she talked about you girls and I could just see her love for you in her expressions as she talked of you both. Blessings to the family. “ So many. Such a sweet, lovely lady. She did my hair when we first moved to North Augusta. Everyone talked about her good cooking. Raised to beautiful girls. Just like her.
