“ We knew Dale at Wine World and always looked forward to seeing him when we stopped in. He was not only good at recommending the right wines for our taste, but we enjoyed easy conversation, good laughs, and a fun visit with him the most. And he always had great classical music playing for us! We have missed him so much since Wine World closed and are sad that he is no longer with us. We do send our best thoughts to all those family who loved him.
