“ Christian sympathies from The Sapp Family - Ralph, Kristin & Hunter. Dan always had a smile on his face and always engaged in fun, light banter! I will miss seeing him in church, as will our church family. He was a faithful choir member on this side of eternity, and I am sure he is now singing amongst the heavenly host!

“ Dan was an inspiration to me. he promoted me to be a lender in Sales Finance at The Georgia Railroad bank in 1977 and was my leader until he retired in 1990. He is the reason I still have a career in Indirect Lending at U.S. Bank. He had such a positive impact in so many lives. He will truly be missed. Joe Mulligan
