“ I know he's in a better place now, but that doesn't mean he isn't missed. Thanks for always being there Pepa. I hope to continue to make you proud through school and my life. Promise I will take care of myself and my education and thanks for always reminding me of how important that is. I love you

“ Pepa will be missed by our family. I will miss eating Sunday lunch with him and will surely miss my Sunday ice cream buddy. I loved our chats of politics, work ethic and how the kids now days have a lot to learn about life. Larry and I are not sure what we will do with our Sunday afternoons since we can't drive to Walterboro to visit.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The Bible offers comfort at Revelation 21:4..."And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things has passed away."
