“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Dan was the sweetest gentleman ever!!! He would always entertain me with stories of bowling with my Dad, Chuck Reed, Clyde Hall & Mr. AL on the Wednesday Night Men's league back in the 80's early 90's. MaryLynn, may God wrap his arms around d you and the kids during this time.

“ Mr. Bills was one of the finest men I ever met. He was warm and kind and had a wonderful sense of humor. We bowled in the same league and I always looked forward to his warm smile. My prayers are with his family and all of his many friends at this time. I know that Mr. Dan is walking streets of gold in Heaven right now looking for the first tee. His service to this country and his fellowman was not in vain. Rest well sir, until we meet again.
