“ My love to Helen, Pam, Margie, Candice, Hannah and all the Donaghue family. Dan was a wonderful husband and father. He was kind to everyone. A friend's husband lost their job...and within days...Dan had him a job. I just learned about Dan's death last night. It broke my heart. (Carolyn Williams)

“ I adored my papa... he was the sweetest and funniest man I knew. He truly cared about this family more than anything. His passing was very calm and peaceful which is a blessing.

*"Down in the meadow in a little bitty pool
Swam three little fishies
And a mama fishie too
"Swim," said the mama fishie,
"Swim if you can."
And they swam and they swam all over the dam*

*Boop boop diten datem whatem choo
Boop boop diten datem whatem choo
Boop boop diten datem whatem choo
And they swam and they swam right over the dam"*

Papa and I's favorite song! I will never forget it! LOVE YOU PAPA.

My Dad was the rock in our family. He was the peacemaker to all family members. He shielded me from whomever he felt was not looking out for my best interests. He always had my back. I have never met a more generous and loving human being. If you mentioned anything you needed he went and got it no strings attached. I was his baby and he took care of me and loved me more than any man could dream of. I miss him so much!!!! I hope my boys follow his path of sheer selflessness. I wish I had more time with him on Earth. I know he is no longer suffering! He will be watching over me till my time comes to join him. I will miss his smile and words of wisdom. My Dad was the coolest nonjudgemental person I know. I LOVE YOU POPS!

“ I have a lot of memories of Dan. He was my father in law for 12 years. He welcomed me into the family and never treated me any different after a divorce. He always had a smile, always quick to laugh. Whatever you needed he was always ready to help you! To the family I understand how much you miss him. I know our flesh wants him back sooo bad. One day we'll all be sitting around in heaven playing cards and laughing. I just know that Dan could always trick me into taking that Duce every time . We'd just laugh and keep going. So to all of you may Gods Holy Spirit keep holding you close ! I love you all! RIP Dan. Your in our futures not our past !

“ I don't even know how to begin this..... My father in law was an amazing man. From the very first day that I first met him, he was always a loving, kind and caring man. He was truly the sweetest and most giving man I have ever met. He lived in terrific pain everyday but was always smiling and always willing to tell a joke or two (although bad) to lighten up the day. He was the most generous person that I have ever met giving to all those in need (and those in want). If you needed something, he gave it without question and without any expectation. He walked in love with everyone. Dad always sacrificed himself for others, always. He never ever had a bad word to say about anyone. Dad had no sense of directions and was always willing to give others those bad directions. I am certain that he went to Heaven via Jacksonville, San Antonio and Detroit because that is how the interstate took him. Dad liked expired cottage cheese and expired milk. He didn't throw much away. Dad lived by the full 3% tip rule at restaurants. He absolutely adored all of his grand children and couldn't wait to see or talk to them. He loved hugs and kisses. Dad was very opinionated about his political affiliations and was always willing to share those with you also, solicited or not. I am certain he has converted St. Peter, St. Gabriel and all of the other Saints over to the Dems by now. And I'm sure he's working on converting God and Jesus by now also. His eyes would light up and smile would come across his face when you walked into any room that he was in. You knew that he was, genuinely, glad that that you were there. He was always that ray of sunshine that you needed to brighten your day.

Dad was a true prince and a true fighter. I will leave with the Irish blessing he gave at our wedding.....

Dad, May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind always be at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face and rains fall soft upon your fields. And until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

I love and miss you greatly, bert

“ My brother Dan was a warm and wonderful guy, one of the sweetest husbands and loving fathers I have EVER known. He was also one of the most generous, hard working, and genuinely funny men I have ever known. We will ALL miss him forever...he was one of the best. Helen you were a perfect wife, Dan was a lucky man, I loved to watch you joke with him, it is always a pleasure to be around a couple so obviously in love. Thank you for being a perfect hostess for all these years as our family would drop in, it couldn't have been easy to be a vacation destination when you were raising a family, but you always greeted us with joy and treated us like honored guests and family. You have always been as much a sister to me as any that were born to my parents and I will love you forever. Pam, Dan, and Marge..we were close enough in age to be friends and I have always been proud to be your aunt...you are all every bit as wonderful as adults and heads of your own families as your amazing Mom and Dad. You are a tribute to your dad who I admit is a really tough act to follow. I love you all!
