“ 23rd Psalm

New King James Version

The Lord the Shepherd of His People

A Psalm of David.

*1 The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.*

*2 He makes me to lie down in [b]green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.*

*4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.*

*5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.*

*6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever.*

I will See You on the other Side Old Friend.

“ Joyce and family, I am sorry for your lose. My husband Ron and David worked together at Lanier for a few years. Both men were a lot alike. Each started their own businesses in the CSRA and appreciated the experience they got from Lanier. Early on, Ron and David would run into each other and referred customers. Over fifty years have gone by but there are good memories of the start to long lives well lived. Cherish your memories.

“ My deceased Husband, John and I really thought a lot for David. Felt as though he and Joyce were always good friends. David always had a smile and something nice to say. I use to tell him he was like a cat with nine lives. Seemed like every time he got sick God would heal him. But this last time I think God just wanted him to rest. They live down the street from me. But also have lived in N. C.. His doctors were in Augusta. I love all of the family they are all so nice. I'm so very sorry for their pain. It's so good all of the family believe in God David included. I know God will comfort them now and the days ahead. You're all in my prayers.
Love you all.

Rest in Peace my dear friend. The 14 months we spent together in Pakistan was our hell on earth. The Army sent us there in civil clothes pretending to be civilians. Thank goodness for each other. We were always proud American boys. I will sure miss our phone calls and catching up. Rest now in Peace my friend knowing how much you were loved and by so many. I will see you again in heaven.
