“ I would like to offer my deepest condolences to the family of David Matthews. Although I did not know him personally, I was moved by the touching video. I too have a family member close to my heart who has a physical disability. Our family is comforted knowing that our loving creator will soon bring about wonderful changes on the earth to benefit mankind. The Bible assures us at Isaiah 33:24 that, "No resident will say: 'I am sick.' " It is also heartwarming to know that, there won't be a need for wheelchairs because Isaiah 35:6 says, "The lame one will leap like a deer." May you too find comfort in the hope that the Holy Scriptures say about the changes God will soon bring upon the earth, to benefit mankind.

I hope your family finds comfort in knowing what a wonderful future awaits mankind. If your heart similarly yearns to see a loved one again, Jehovah's Witnesses will gladly assist you to learn how you can make this sure hope you very own. Why not contact them at a Kingdom Hall near you.

“ Mary, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your sweet brother. I loved seeing the video - what a special man and family. It made me think of my own brother. Losing him was made easier knowing that I will see him again, even though I so miss him now. What a blessed assurance. My prayers are with you and your family.

John 11:23-26

Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

“ What precious memories I have of this sweet young man... I was fortunate enough to be able to sit with him while the Matthews were at the church. I still can remember his laugh and the joy he always seemed to have. The family is in my thoughts and prayers today.

“ Although I didn't really know David, I do know how much he was loved and cared for by his family. After seeing his video I could see in his eyes that he loved you all, too. May you feel God's arms around you during this time of grief knowing David's smiling face and bright eyes are watching from heaven.
