“ David and I were friends in High School and both were stationed at Shaw Air Force Base in late 60s. We had to spend many Friday afternoons thumbing a ride from Shaw back to North Augusta. After I was able to buy a used Camaro he and I felt like we were in high cotton. No more thumbing rides. I picked David up every Sunday night at his home in Beech Island and we kept each other awake for the ride back to base by telling of our weekend adventures. David had a good heart. We are deeply saddened at his passing. Our condolences to all of his family.
