To best celebrate Debbie's life and her appreciation for music, Adore Duet will be graciously providing a stringed quartet and performing the musical selections for her services.

Debra or "Debbie" Still was a beloved grandmother, mother, and wife during her incredible 70 years of life. She was born on July 30, 1952, at the old University Hospital in Augusta, GA, to her loving parents, Evie Bishop and John Estes Liles. Her father was a World War II Marine and house painter back stateside, while her mother was a cake decorator in Aiken, SC. Debbie had three siblings Ann, Larry, and Johnny. After working local clerical jobs in Augusta, GA, she was hired at Savannah River Plant, where she worked for 37 years. She met her husband, Mitch, at work in 1982. Since 1988 they have been happily married for 34 years.

Debbie loved the beach, cooking for others, supporting family, friends, co-workers and superiors. She understood virtue of sacrifice and will be fondly remembered for her strength, humility, and compassion.

Debbie is survived by her husband, Mitch Still; a daughter, Stephanie (Jonathan) Wates; three grandchildren, Wyatt Wates, Madison Wates, and Darien Dorn; a brother, Johnny (Angie) Liles of Colorado; and a stepsister, Patsy Cheek of Lexington, SC. She is preceded by in death by her father, John E. Liles; her mother, Evie Jones; her sister, Ann Liles; her brother, Larry Liles; and a stepbrother, Charles Cheek.

“ Debbie was my sister-in-law, the best sister-in-law anyone could have. Debbie kept us all in stitches. She was sweet and so funny she kept us all in stitches with her stories of my brother, and other stories,her quick witt,and most of all her beautiful smile...she was a pleasant person to be around,and I will forever miss her.I will never forget her love for jelly beans. She would literally act like she was going yo hide her jellybeans if I came around because she was like not gonna share them jellybeans with me or nobody else; I'm sure she would have ,it was she loved messing with me and I did the same to her, 4-ever missed!

“ "Debbie Liles" as we use to call her in high school and continued even into adulthood. Debbie always had that cute little smile followed by some quick wit comebacks. Just look at her picture and you can tell she was a character. I pray God will comfort Mitch and family and friends. RIP "Debbie Liles", we will all miss you...

“ I am happy for Debbie that she is in her 'Forever Home', but I will miss her greatly, as she was like a daughter to me. She could keep us entertained telling us the funny things Mitch could do on their many trips. She loved life, and put a lot into it. She lost so many loved ones in such a short time, and I know she will put her very own stamp on her Heavenly home. We will miss you, Sweetheart, you leaving has left an ache in our hearts.
