“ I think Deb was one of the sweetest and most gentle of all of God's creations. I am grateful that I had the opportunity to know her. I remember when my son had surgery a couple of years ago. Soon after we arrived home from the hospital, Deb was on our doorstep with cupcakes and a card. She will be missed!! ”

“ When Deb sang in the stake choir, she and I always sat together! And we always had a blast! I have so many fond memories with her. My favorite is singing Oklahoma! I have always thought she is one of the most beautiful women--both inside and out. And her daughters are right there with her. What an incredible woman and mother! I'm grateful for the miracles that kept her with us for longer than the medical world thought possible! My love and prayers go out to her family.
