People come & go in life's journey...so happy to have met Debbie on my life's journey. Our paths crossed briefly while working at SRS, however, she was kind of person you never forget. May your memories of Debbie and God's grace comfort you during this transition.

“ Debbies death is still a shock to me. To her family and the love of her life Mr Craven God plucked another precious flower for his garden as he did with Ryan. In 2005 when I first met Debbie I was working at Alltel wireless and Debbie always wanted the newest phone and she got it, it didnt matter the cost. From that day forward I became her, Ryans' and Mr Craven personal assistant for all the new gadgets. Along the way Debbie and I developed a friendship as well. I never met a person who loved flip flops like Debbie. Their are so many things that I can say. One thing for sure she lived a wonderful life she was able to see "most" of the world. Everytime I talked to her, her and Mr Craven was going on a trip somewhere. She was such a sweet, loving, person. Job well done faithful servant. Sleep on Debbie get your rest. Until we meet again. I am praying for Mr Craven for GOD to give you strength and courage. To be there for you to wipe your tears away and to mend your broken heart. Remember God is to wise to make a mistake and to just to do wrong. He will bring you peace!

I am sending my sympathies to the Harville - Craven families today. This is just a huge loss to so many. Debbie was such a full of life girl that always had a big smile on that face and the best sense of humor than so many I know. She is truly having a blast today as she did always! She was loved by many that she touched in her short lifetime and we will always remember and love her so very much! There is such a huge void in all of our hearts right now but she will live on through each and every one of us that had the pleasure of sharing in her life. She was a wonderful friend. Love sent to you all at this time.
