

Deborah Owens

September 18, 1956 - March 11, 2026

Deborah Owens passed away on March 11 after a short illness. She is survived by her son Quintin Owens (Joy) and grandsons Jordan (Hope), great grandson Liam, and grandson Connor Owens. She was preceded in death by her husband Jim Owens, and parents Willard “Boots” Rhodes and Ora Brady. She was born September 18, 1956.

Known by family as Sissy, and Debbie to friends, she spent time in Georgia, California, North Carolina, and settled in Aiken, South Carolina with Jim and Quintin over 40 years ago. Debbie made her corner of the world beautiful through crafting and caring for children and the elderly throughout her life.

Because they were farther away from the nuclear family, Jim and Debbie opened their home to younger brothers and sisters, and nieces and nephews for weeks in the summertime. We all have great memories of playing with each other and hearing her laughter with us. She was a kind and gentle soul. Her skills as a caregiver are unmatched, caring for her parents as they aged and passed on, as well as others in her community. Her kindness, her heart, and her sense of humor will be greatly missed, and we will strive to make the impact on those around us that she had on those in her family and community.

Also left to miss her so, are siblings, Bill Rhodes, of Hendersonville, NC, Jason Rhodes of Asheville, NC, Justin Rhodes of Fletcher, NC, Kelly Rhodes

Paschall of Puryear, TN, and Asher Rhodes of North Wales, PA, along with several cousins, nieces, nephews and great grandchildren.

The funeral will be Saturday, March 21 at 2:00 PM at Avery's Creek Freewill Baptist Church, Arden, NC.
