“ I loved Aunt Debbie so very much. She was always kind and loving.
I remember as a teenager telling me that I looked like this actress on TV at the time and I thought that was the greatest thing. I thought she was very "cool" to know even who the actress was and all about the show. My husband, myself and our children will always remember her and her sweet personality and for the testimony that she had of the gospel.##imported-begin##andrea wahl##imported-

“ i am so very glad that i had the opportunity to know debbi. we had a good time reflecting on our lives, visiting with one another, sharing laughter and tears. she enjoyed my grandchildren and feeding carrots to our horses.

i found comfort in knowing she was just a few miles away and i thought of her each time i passed the stop sign.

i will miss her. she knew heavenly father's plan and i know that she now rejoyces with john.

goodbye to my friend for now.

“ I can't believe that Debbie is gone but I know that she is probably very happy to be with John once again. She did miss him so much. I'm so grateful that Debbie and John were able visit us here in Utah and spend Thanksgiving and Christmas together in 2007. That was the last time we had our 7 siblings together. I enjoyed talking with Debbie on the phone and sharing fun experiences with her about John. I know that she loved her little dogs and maybe she is enjoying Katie once again. To her sister Diane I hope that all will be well with you and we'll keep in touch.###imported-begin###Marianne Loosli Madrigal###imported-end##
