“ My sweet friend, I miss you. Hard to believe its been a year. All the years we knew each other I could not have found a better friend. A lot of wonderful memories we as friends & our families made. Best friends, bar-b-q's, bingo, buffets & beer in our earlier years. Coffee, tea, boys playing baseball. Grocery shopping, brushing girls hair. Encouragement & advice. Long hugs & a lot of laughter! Oh how I miss you & our long phone talks. I will always hold you & our sweet time together talking, holding hands & tears gently falling in your last days. I wouldn't trade a moment of our time ever together for the world. I miss you my dear dear friend.

De or Jenna as I knew her on met online on a virtual game 5 yrs ago. She was my mentor and friend. We chatted thru a myriad of subjects. We had always talked of visiting each other I live in California. I am very saddened to learn of her passing and have always searched for her online. My condolences and prayers to her family. She was a great friend and mentor. I miss her dearly.

Dodie and I had "known" each other for over ten years, although we never met face to face. We were internet friends and used to chat online almost every day. We did speak on the phone now and then and became very close. We had always hoped to meet in person one day. I lived in New Mexico and used to invite her to come visit, but her fear of flying prevented it. I moved to South Carolina a few years ago and thought it would be easier to get together, but somehow we never got around to it. I was shocked and saddened to learn of her death. I will truly miss her.
