“ I have such fond memories of Denise when it was just the Harlem Ward and our children were growing up together. We were a Ward family and had some great times. Denise was a great friend, sister, wife and mother to all that knows her and loves her. There is a saying that Grief is the last act of love we have to give those we loved. Where there is deep grief, there was great love. Denise is greatly loved. John and family, my love and prayers are with you all now and especially the days ahead.
