“ I put the ultimate trust in this woman 13 years ago when I trusted her to take care of my newborn daughter. As stressful as it was, it didn't take long before I realized that I had chosen a woman who would love and care for my daughter as I would. Diane, Frank and Christy became a part of our family at that point and I have always been sooo grateful. What a wonderful, loving woman! Tessa and I are so heartbroken over her loss.

“ I have several great memories of Diane and the impact she made on my life. She took me to my first high school football game.... She use to make me cinnamon toast for breakfast when I was in the 4th grade. She let me borrow her bikes to ride when we visited Ponte Vedra Beach. She was funny... always smiling and keeping a smile on the face of those around her. Prayers for her husband "Frank", children Jodie and Christi, sister Deborah and all of those whose life she has touched. Much Love, to my cousin.. you will be missed.
