MR

Donna and family, so sorry for your loss. Just saw this today. This is on behalf of my mom and dad, we have a lot of memories of yall as our next door neighbor in Belvedere and after you moved. The biggest thing that comes to mind about your dad is him riding me on the back of his motorcycle around the block back then. I was around 6 years old and have never forgot. Of course last time I seen you was at Spinglakes in Martinez about two decades ago. But the bottom line is my family enjoyed your family as friends for all of our years, and would like to express our condolences.
