“ Dear Mrs Johnson, I was shocked when I saw Don's obituary in the newspaper today. My heart aches for you in your loss. My husband passed away two years ago, so I have an idea of your pain. No matter what was going on in my life, I knew my news of the day would be waiting in my box. Thank you to you and Don for your service to me. Pat Riehl

Don and Debbie lived in the same complex as my son and I just saw him on Friday with that beautiful smile. I will miss you Don. May you rest in peace and be happy ever after with your Lord and Savior.

“ I used to ride my bicycle from Smithfield to Don's house on weekends. We played football in the field next door, and went to ball games at Lions Field. I also played Little League Baseball with him on the Lions Club Team. We had some good times.
