“ Went to see him a few days before he passed and even though he was uncomfortable, he still smiled at my jokes and thanked me for bringing Becky to see him. He was a very sweet man.

This is Donna Collins husband's family the Hazels at Thanksgiving with Don, Carolyn, Becky and Bridget at the Collin's home. Thank you for this memory. I will always treasure it. Donna was a dear sister-in-law and her father had been in my life for quite some time.

“Got to spend a great deal of time with Don through his illnesses. He had a lot of adventures that he loved to share. He surely missed Ms Carolyn. He was always so proud of his girls Becky the way she would care for him and Bridget with all her talent. Stayed concerned with Lindas health. Now he is with Jesus and I'm sure he has inquired as to where he can get a flashlight. God bless you Don Collins!”

Liz, thank you for your sweet words. They made me both laugh and cry. Thank you for being such a good companion to him. I have so many special memories of him to share that it would take all day. Of my favorites would be when he would take Becky and I to Walmart every friday night and give me $5 to spend, vacations to the mountains, spending the weekends and going to church with them every Sunday, and evenings when he would come home from work. Becky and grandma would say, Bridget you better hide, he's coming down the driveway, so I'd go hide behind the washing machine in the kitchen and when he walked in he'd ask, where's Bridget? And I'd jump out from behind the washer and surprise him. Precious memories! He was so helpful and caring toward everyone and was always a smart man who knew right from wrong and would protect us girls to the ends of the earth. I will miss him dearly and will miss his phone calls. He was looking so forward to us moving back home and seeing our little ones more. Sadly, we're just now moving home, just in time for the funeral. I know he is looking down from heaven now and is so happy and proud of his girls :)
