He was a native of Santa Barbara, CA, a former resident of North Augusta, SC, Annapolis, MO, and Fredericktown, MO, having recently returned to made North Augusta his home again. During his time in Santa Barbara, he worked for his father, John, with J.W. Service Company as an equipment repairman for many years and later became owner and operator of Don's Repair. Don had a passion for the water, loved the ocean, boating, fishing, and diving off the coast of Santa Barbara for abalone. He was a wonderful cook, an avid bowler, and loved to shoot pool. Don was known by his friends and pool buddies as "Minnesota Shorts." He was immensely proud of his sixteen years of sobriety and found listening to music brought him much peace in a chaotic world. Don was a music enthusiast with Classic Rock being his most favorite. However, his greatest joy in life was his family, especially his only daughter, who he affectionately called his "Sunshine".

Surviving family members left to cherish his memory include his beloved daughter, Jamie Lynne Elliott Corbett Crawford (Brandon); two grandchildren, Taylor Corbett and Allo Corbett; three brothers, Tom Elliott (Susie), John Elliott

(Ann), and Steve Elliott; a sister, Collette Elliott Bass (Kent); and several nieces and nephews.
