“ Got to know Doug for many years. From High School until present. Would see him every third Wednesday when friends would meet for lunch. Saw him last at VA Hospital. He will be missed by many. I pray that his family finds peace through their faith in God's grace. May their pain from loss be short.

“ We loved Douglas so much. Years ago we enjoyed traveling out West with Douglas and Maryann on vacation and seeing family. I loved that we all went to Friendship Baptist Church together. Maryann has always been by his side doing all she could do for him like she does for all of her family. John's always has said Maryann has always been more like a Sister than a Neice to him. Douglas loved to fish, camp, and he loved his children and Grand children. He was a giving person and he loved God and his church family and Preacher Heyward Horton. We will miss Douglas. We are praying God will comfort all of the family during this time.

Love Always,

John and Judy Wood
