God be with you all in loving memory of Doug a great friend and best road captain on awesome rides. He loved riding the mountains and showing areas where no one had been before. Bill and I will always remember our motorcycle adventures. Dear Friend until we meet again in Heaven and ride again on more great roads that you have found for us to travel. With God's Great Blessing and LOVE for you and your family. Bill and Ruth Garland

Rick and I have known Doug a long time. He was always a big ole Teddy bear with the biggest heart anywhere. We were thrilled when Doug married you because all one had to do was look at Doug's face when he was around you. He had adoring eyes that literally smiled when you entered his presence. He did not have to 'fit' into your world because you automatically fit into his. His bonus gift marrying you was having two daughters to love and grandchildren to spoil. He loved your sisters as well. It was a brief six years, my lady, but an amazing six years. You were fortunate enough to meet and marry and love ❤️ your soulmate! That, my friend, is the infinite hand of God at work for His children. God knew that Doug needed you AND that you needed Doug. The next few weeks and months will be hard, but they will serve as a reminder of the wonderful gift God gave you - Doug Huckeba!
