“ Doris and Family

I don't have the words to tell you how sorry I am to hear of your Mother's passing. I know the pain of the death of a Mother, but the thought of them greeting us in Heaven brings peace. Depend on Gods grace and call upon Him, He will be your strength.
My Love Thoughts and Prayers.

“ I am saddened by your loss. My Mother, Bess, made me aware of the funeral notice. She sends her condolences, especially to Doris and Betty. We Sindlingers remember the good family life of the 50's, and the best memories we have of Tubman Home Road were being friends with your family. We played cards at our kitchen tables, cooled off with sprinklers in our yards and rode our bikes. Thank God we had a lot of respect for our parents in those days. Mrs. Logan was a great mother and homemaker. May God send peace and comfort to the remaining family.##imported-begin##Linda Sindlinger Frank##imported-end##
