“ To the family of Edith Brown
Edith was a lovely lady. Always enjoying working in her yard and with flowers. She knew the Lord Jesus Christ and what some would call a "senior saint" She will truly be missed but we all know she is in a better place. May God give you comfort & peace during this time.
She will always be in our hearts and memories forever.

“ Aunt Ede was such a wonderful lady. Always full of life and fun. She could always make you happy and make you laugh. All the way to the end she was making people smile. Now she can go be with her Lord and be with her husband. I will always love and miss her.
