“ *Beth and Mike,
My memories of your Mother are so full of joyous moments throughout my childhood and on to today. Her suffering these last years was so great, but her faith in the Lord kept her going through everything. She tirelessly took care of your Father even though she suffered greatly until he went on to be with the Lord.
Her crowns are now secured and she is with all the saints who have gone on before her and I rest in the comfort of knowing I will again see Mrs. Edith's smiling face when I am called Home.
God Bless you and your families throughout this time*

“ I remember Mrs. Percival as being one of the sweetest, most kind and helpful ladies I have ever met. I have not had much contact with her other than FBC. I always enjoyed being around her and seeing her at church.
