Dianne and Jim. We are so sorry about Edna's passing. Mike just heard the news today. I know you will miss her but she is in a better place. Plus she is gone but not forgotten. Will be there for the service this afternoon. May the Lord give you peace and treasure in your heart those great memories and years you have her. God bless you all. Love you both, had great and fun memories of her since she worked at Wachovia. 🙏🥹

Jim,

*My sincere sympathy for you and Diane on Edna' s passing. It has been many years, Diane and Lee Ann were youngsters.
God Bless you all.*

The world was a better place because Edna Fleming Inman was in it. Mimi lit up a room with her vivacious smile and sweet demeanor. I know all of you will miss her so very, very much, but she will be in your hearts for the rest of your days until you can be reunited. Please know my thoughts and prayers have been and shall continue to be with you in the days, weeks, and months to come. Mimi knew she was loved by all of you, and your love for her was so apparent. She was the epitome of what a woman, wife, mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend should be!
