“ Hi Angela, Ed and I played baseball together many years ago on the Posey's pony league baseball team . We were about 13-14 yrs old . Ed normally played 1st base for us. I was a pitcher . One night I was to go in as a relief pitcher and the coach told Ed to warn me up beforehand. We threw a little while & I kept asking Ed if he could see the ball ok. He kept saying he could see fine. I said “here comes the cure ball” It hit him right in the nose and I thought I had killed him. We stayed friends through high school but I'm not sure how much baseball he played after that. Sorry to here of your loss .
