“ I am a friend of Mark's from work and just received the sad news of the loss of Mr Edward P. Kenny. I have known Mark for about 10 years and I am sure that Ed is proud of the caliber and spirit of his children. It is heartening to read about his good nature and good humor which surely passed to Mark and I would guess to other family members as well. It is my solemn wish that all of the sons and daughters and other relatives and friends find solace and relief in the memories of his past as you try to move past the somber present. Please accept my sincere condolences and I wish Mark and Erin and all others in the Kenny family the best through these difficult times.

“ Dad was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. Family was most important in his life and his greatest joy. He was modest of his many accomplishments and would say his children were his greatest accomplishment. When asked the secret to a long marriage he would say, "marry your best friend". He was a true Southern Gentleman with a smile for all and a thank you to anyone doing the slightest thing for him.

Daddy, you have always been my hero!

I love you deeply.
