“ My mother was a strong person who overcame so much in her life. She dealt with more adversity than most people could have withstood. She was born in trying times, was raised in an era most of us simply cannot remotely understand. She lost her spouse and raised my brother and I alone, by choice. She managed to accomplish things that others could have never have done. She was in a nutshell a phenomenal human.

She was a teacher, defender of all and a truly good person. Any person she took under her wing became a part of her family.

It has taken me a while to get myself to where I could post this note.

She is whole and well again. For that I am incredibly thankful.

If she touched your life you were blessed.

We thank you for your thoughts and prayers.

Blessed be.

“ Momma Patrick was my other mother for most of my formidable years. Tommy became my best friend in 2nd grade. Momma Patrick took me in and made me one of her own right away. Maggie has been my other big sister for all those years and more. My youngest sons middle name is Patrick because of Momma Patrick, Tommy and Maggie. I have never met someone as tough or as caring as Momma Patrick. I never had her as a true teacher, but she taught me more than I would ever realize until I was much older. I remember several years ago when I was still living in North Augusta and ran into her at the grocery store with my kids. I hadn't seen or talked to her in several years. She acted like it was last weekend. I will miss her smile, her sternness or her own special sarcasm. Maggie and Tommy, my heart is with you both! Momma Patrick was a great and special lady!!

“ I first met Ms. Patrick when she was my fourth grade teacher. I later became friends with Tom and spent a lot of time in their home in my formative years. She was like a mother to me in many ways. I enjoyed sharing my children with her when I visited North Augusta. My most heartfelt condolences go out to Margaret, Jeff, Annissa, Tom, Martin, Michelle and Alan. I wish you all God's peace.

I am so sorry to learn about Beth passing. She taught for us at North Augusta Elementary. She was a hard worker and went about teaching in a quite manner. She was so sweet and I always enjoyed talking and laughing with her when I visited in her classroom and in the halls. Rest in Peace Beth! You will be missed!
