My Dear Friend Betty will be so missed. She was a bright light in my life and constant confidant and companion. My admiration of her strength and longevity grew constantly. She was a Buddy and sidekick in many shopping sprees and rides on country roads. I was privileged to help her and care for her in her hours of need thru illness and and sorrow but shared so many fun and joyful times and holidays too. Birthday celebrations were an annual event with lots of presents of jewelry She so loved to receive and clothing as she was an impeccable dresser, always coordinated from head to toe. I loved her and was proud to have her as my close friend. Like a Mother and like a Sister I never had. She valued and trusted me in matters of her health and well being. Her mind and heart were true and her brain never ceased to amaze me even at 92. Her phone calls made my day and her prayers a constant reminder that she was in my corner everyday. I saw her thru the last days of her life as a nurse and caring person who tried to ease her pain. She felt my love and even now I can feel certain she will watch over me from Heaven. Rest easy and well my dearest friend, love you always, and will Remember you well. Till we meet again your loving friend Diana Anderson

“ How do you summarize a life of almost 93 years. Elizabeth Waites, Miss Betty or just Betty was so many remarkable things. She was meticulous, organized, neat as a pin, kept her trailer immaculate with nothing out of place even at just under 93. Her drawers were each a masterpiece of neatness and organized. Every holiday or event was decorated inside and out to celebrate all with collected decorations Winter wonderland at Christmas, adorable Easter collection. and so on for the rest of the year. Her outfits also matched the holidays at the time with matching socks. She was a marvel a whirlwind a mover and a shaker. She was a devout Christian and read Christian books and scriptures everyday. She believed in the power of prayer and was ready to pray for everyone she knew in need. She could be brutally honest but she was funny and never sought to hurt anyone on purpose. She loved life and lived it to the fullest. She never lost her joy for every new day she spent in this world. Beyond her extended family she touched many lives and had life long friends. She myself and our mutual friend Ellen called ourselves the Golden Girls 75, myself ,81 Ellen and almost 93 Betty. She was never forgotten once you met her. She was remarkable and one of a kind. Her memory was amazing for detail recent and past. She was always current on the latest weather forecast and current events. She touched her friends lives because she was one in a million. She was a Princess in her mind and was treated like one. You couldn't help it. She was endearing just by her sheer positive attitude even through so many cancer bouts She was her own best advocate for her care and wasn't shy to see every Doctor under the sun to keep going. She respected my nursing background and always asked my advice. Talking 2 or3 times a day. She could call me night or day. The fact that she would say I don't know what I'd do without you in my life and that she loved me meant the world to me. Our little squabbles here and there never lasted because we knew that we never could stay mad and would miss each other too much. Glenda and Tom, David and his wife, Don and Hazel, Cindy and her everyday lunch Pal Ellen. Who for 15 years made sure she had a hearty meal either eating out or bringing into her home 7 days a week. She took on this role because she cared so much for her friend. She has a big heart and could always be counted on and Betty knew she was always there if times were tuff. So many things were done without regard for pay back just out of a friends love. Betty knew the value of that friendship as well as mine, and others mentioned in her life. Her prayers for me had amazing results and I felt the Lord had a special ear for her prayers. So this the the complexity of Betty I wanted everyone to know. Her Bible study friends loved her too. She was a character with some things she said like The Pole ICE so funny She had a respect for the law. She worked hard and managed her finances though meager well. She always tucked money away for a rainy day and owed nothing. Her bill always on time and wanted nothing left to burden her children when she passed. She was righteous and extremely responsible in her elder years. One in a million as I've said. There were not many people at her service but the lives she touched were far and wide and for those who didn't speak there I felt I wanted to fill in what I knew and loved about her. She will be missed and died in grace “ Aunt Betty, I have so many wonderful memories of you. We took many excursions when you lived in Baltimore and shared many laughs. You were always so witty and full of life. You had a love of family and we got together every Sunday for dinners at Mom Mom's, where we engaged in fun games and special times. After you moved away, your heart was always connected to Maryland, and everyone looked forward to your visits home. I remember you always stayed with me, after the passing of your Mom. We took many trips together. You had a love for the Amish, and we made frequent trips there. We would take you to the beach and you were always up for the challenge, even getting on the jet ski and enjoying the boat. You loved to eat "good Maryland crab cakes". You and my dad were always so close, and it broke your heart when he passed. You loved the Lord and we worshiped together and shared so many stories. You always thought of me more as a daughter, than a niece. I was so thankful to face time with you and see you and speak with you up until the end. I sure will miss you, but I rejoice that you are at peace, no more tears, no more suffering, and are in the presence of the Lord, surrounded by all our loved ones that I look forward to being united with one day and will spend an eternity with. Go rest in the arms of Jesus, and feel a love, unlike anything you have ever known, and enjoy Gloryland. Thanks for your love, your laughs, and the precious memories. You shall always remain in my heart. I celebrate your graduation!!
