“ Hi again, Hope my first message went thru. Your Mom will be with you. I remember when your parents called my parents to tell them you were on the way and then, when you were born. They cherished you, Libby. I remember when you visited us in Toledo. You were so bubbly and dsarling. You have my love and sympathy. Diane##imported-begin##Diane Dietrich Frick##imported-end##

“ Dear Libby and family, Sarah Sullivan sent me the newspaper clipping and the sad news re' your precious Mom's passing. We all called her Aunt Lib and I loved her like an aunt! Is so difficult to lose your Mother. I know she was ill; however, that doesn't always take the pain of the loved ones away. She will be with you,honey!!!##imported-begin##Diane Dietrich Frick##imported-end##

“ What fun and happy memories I have of Aunt Lib. My sisters and I all loved her like our own aunt - she was a beautiful lady in every sense of that word. I do hope that many happy memories will soon replace the sorrow that you - her family - must feel at this time. God bless you with his presence and comfort.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the Dabney and Coleman families as you say goodbye to such a beautiful lady. I was blessed to take piano lessons from her and can still remember how sweet she was when I hit the wrong note.

Though her piano keys may have been silenced on earth, they will continue to make such beautiful music in heaven. And her music will continue to live on as each student she ever taught, sits down to play a song.

Love,

“ I could say that Mrs. Dabney taught me piano, organ and voice for 12 years but it wouldn't really be true. Mrs. Dabney taught me and many others her whole life. She was an inspiration and an encouragement to so many. I will never forget singing my first song in church at age nine and Mrs. Dabney playing the piano for me. I was supposed to sing the first and last verse of the Old Rugged Cross. I sang the first verse and started to sing the first again instead of the second like I was supposed to and stopped dead when I realized my mistake. Mrs. Dabney never even cracked a smile. She just gently told me to start again and I did! I have been singing and playing the piano and organ now for thirty two years thanks to Mrs. Dabney. She was such a blessing to so many. Her legacy will carry on in the many students she taught over the years. We love you Ms. Lib and will miss you and never...ever forget what you taught us.##imported-begin##Sandra Oglesby##imported-end##

“ A few months ago I stopped by to visit with Lib and thank her for the wonderful years we shared as student/teacher. Twelve years with her was not enough to learn the wonderful talent that God gave her fingers and soul. On the day I visited, we played together several old favorites (me on the Organ and Lib on the piano) and it is a memory that I will cherish for as long as I live. I will never forget the church services we played together and the concerts we enjoyed over the years. I loved her. I thanked God today for allowing me the gift of knowing this wonderful Christian and for the talent she shared with all of us. little Lib, my thoughts are with you and may God take your hand and lead you through the days ahead. Love you.##imported-begin##Stephen D. Ellis##imported-end##
