

Ella Kate Bumgardner

March 1, 2006 - October 7, 2016

Ella Kate Bumgardner

Martinez, GA—Funeral Services for Ella Kate Bumgardner, age 10, who entered into the arms of Jesus, October 7, 2016, will be conducted Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock from First Baptist Church of North Augusta. Dr. Ryan Pack officiating. Interment in Westover Memorial Park.

Ella was a 5th grade student at Stevens Creek Elementary School in Mrs. Marriott and Mrs. Glass's classrooms. She was a member of her school chorus, the kids worship ministry at First Baptist Church of North Augusta and Awana's. Ella was a loving daughter, sister, granddaughter and niece who loved her family and friends with her whole heart. Outwardly shy, those who really knew Ella quickly learned that she was the true source of spunk in her family. Ella loved sharing notes especially the daily ones her parents would leave in her lunchbox. Family movie nights were a top priority and popcorn was a definite must. Ella enjoyed playing school with her sisters, loved making videos and was a talented video editor. Her family is so thankful she was able to be an organ donor and give the gift of life to many others. She was preceded in death by her uncle Eric Broome.

Survivors include her parents Jeff and Jody Bumgardner; two sisters, Abby Bumgardner and Ava Bumgardner; a brother, Caleb Bumgardner; maternal grandparents, Michael and Lynne Broome; paternal grandparents, Ronald and Patty Bumgardner; an aunt, Erin Waterhouse (Justin); an uncle, Ron Bumgardner; several cousins.

Pallbearers will be Caleb Bumgardner, Justin Waterhouse, Ron Bumgardner and Shaun Glass.

The family will receive friends in the Children's Learning Center at First Baptist Church Tuesday evening from 5 until 7.

Ella's favorite color was green and we encourage all who attend her service to please wear something green.

Posey Funeral Directors of North Augusta in charge of arrangements (803.278.1181). Visit the registry at www.poseycares.com

What a real joy and blessings to be able to view the video of the beautiful service for little Ella. Even though I never had the privilege of meeting her, she and her family have touched my heart and life. I have know her father Jeff since he was a young teenager , when he and his family were members at Old Union Baptist Church in Harlem, GA . Since joining facebook, I have stayed in touch with Jeff and his mother, Patty. My heart, love and prayers are with Ella's entire family. Having experienced the of death of an infant grandson, my husband and my oldest granddaughter, be assured that the precious memories of your Ella will be ever present at the just the right time when you need them. You will be reminded of the joy she brought into your life. It will be fuel for you to move forward in faith to continue to allow your individual lives to shine for Jesus. In God's time there will be a great homecoming for us all one day! Love and prayers, Justine T. Moseley, Trumansburg, NY

Jeff and Jody, I can't imagine the sorrow you are experiencing with the sudden loss of Ella. I admire your courage to agree to organ donation. Our 19 yr. old nephew died tragically years ago and my brother and my brother and sister-in-law agreed for him to be an organ donor. Like Ella, he was very healthy. As time passed, the entire family got comfort in knowing life was shared with other families. God bless you in this walk without Ella's presence. Brenda Broome Rosson and family

“ SHE'S GONE AHEAD...

People often say, when a loved one dies, that they have "passed away."

Or they will say "we lost her" on such and such a day.

People hesitate to talk of her as if the subject is taboo;

But if they only knew the truth, she's as alive as me and you!

Humans have a spirit that never, ever dies;

It's the "real us" that lives forever, but not seen with human eyes.

Without a special space suit, we can't live in space;

And here we need our "earth suit" with feet and hands and face.

The day your loved one left this earth, she did not "pass away."

She just changed her address to the Land of Endless Day.

She quietly slipped from her "earth suit" like the breaking of the dawn.

The angels escorted her upward as she waved her loved ones on.

Clothed with a brand new body that will never experience pain,

She's able to say with Paul, "This is no loss--it's gain!"

And though your heart is hurting, remember this one thing.

She's enjoying heaven with Jesus, her personal Savior and King!

So when her birthday comes around, go ahead and bake a cake.

Don't be afraid to celebrate just because she moved away!

Don't hesitate to talk of her or remember her dear face,

Because one day you'll cross over and join her in that place!

It will seem like she was never gone, for you held her in your heart.

For love is what keeps you together, even when you are apart.

“ My heart aches for the physical loss of Ella, God had a mission for her that WE might not understand, and at times might anger us and cause us to doubt him. Ella is with you, with us, in her most GLORIOUS FORM, she is a heavenly body doing the work of the Lord. Ella will be the sun on a bright day, she will let you know she is here when she sends you a singing bird. Keep the faith <3

“ I did not know this young lady. But this is one thing that a parent should not have to ever do, is bury a child. However there are times when God needs a little help from his children and calls them back home so they can help him do more. Just think that she is already helping him to take care of you that are left behind. So remember that everyday she is looking after yall. God Bless and I am very sorry for your loss.
