“ I remember him owning his own service station across the 13 street bridge. His son Melvin working with him (I always wanted to be in Melvin hip pocket). I was maybe 12 or so. It made me so proud to see him owning that service station. They was storing Sandra and Kathy bicycles at the station one year before Christmas. I saw them. I knew there wasn't a Santa Claus (lol). We all got bikes that Christmas. We lived across the street from them. I still have those memories riding by there. While you are missed already enjoy heaven Mr David with your wife, children other family members and friend. Curtis (Don) Wheeler
