“ *Mr Ed was a customer of ours at Long's Garage. He grew to be our friend also. Sometimes he would come around just to talk. Lois use to go barefooted and it bothered him , so when he would come she would make sure she had shoes on.
We will miss him not only as a customer, but mostly as our friend.##imported-begin##Aaron(Sonny) & Lois Long##imported-end##*

“ Mr. Appling was a dear and treasured friend. I was honored to first meet him through our relationship at Fairview, but our friendship was beyond church, as we lived just a few blocks apart. "Mr. Ed" welcomed me with a ready smile, always a humorous quip, and a positive outlook. I was always the one blessed whenever we spent time together. He will be greatly missed. My heartfelt and Christian sympathy is with you and your family. May God's strength, mercy and peace surround you.##imported-begin##Ann Jackson, Orangeburg, SC##imported-end##

“ Mr. Appling and his family were a part of my life from the time they moved to North Augusta and Walter and I became classmates and friends. I share your sadness that he is no longer with us in this world and your joy that we will one day see him in the next life. May God comfort you.

Love,
