“ I met Tina at the local grocery store where we talked briefly and she shared her plans to bless a family that day. I felt led to pray with her right there among the shoppers. We exchanged phone numbers and became prayer partners for a very short season. She prayed fervently with me for our son in the following months. When we talked on the phone we would laugh sometimes and pray. She never got to meet him. She left us far too soon. She did share how much she missed her husband since his passing. I pray that she is with her husband and also with our Lord as and Savior Jesus Christ. I will miss my prayer warrior and sister in Christ!! My blessings to you Christopher, Patrick and Alexandria.

“ I first met Tina in 1965 when we were stationed in Charleston, SC, she at the Navy base and I at the Air Force base. We both were medics, We became fast friends, Tina always made me laugh. I was delighted some years later to learn that she and my brother Ed were getting married.

I moved several times and lived in different parts of the country, so we didn't see each other often. Whenever we were together though, we had a good time.

Tina really missed my brother Ed after he died in 2011 and now I trust they are together in heaven.

My sincere condolences to Chris, Karl and Patrick. I wish you peace, love and hope.
