“ As a formera chaplain and now a volunteer with United Hospice, I have known Esther for many years. She was a jewel. She loved taking care of her hospice patients and she loved First Baptist Church of North Augusta. She leaves a rich legacy of faith and service.##imported-begin##Paulwyn Boliek##imported-end##

“ Gayle, Rhett, Nancy and Richie, Your Mom/grandmother was a very special lady. I have fond memories of her since Gayle and I were on the drill team in high school. She pierced my ears, fed me Byron's bbq and drove me to/from many school activites. She wrote frequent letters, called, even adopted my grandkids as her own, sending them stickers, cards and money. She befriended my aunt Virginia when she moved into St. Johns Towers. I will cherish my long friendship with such a fine Christian woman. May God keep you all in perfect peace during this difficult time for your family. Love, Vida Lou and Charles, Smyrna, Georgia##imported-begin##Charles and Vida Lou##imported-end##

“ It was an honor to meet Mrs. Senn at St. John's while my Mom was living there. She was at all times a very nice lady. Rhett and Sue, please know you and the entire family are in Robin's and my prayers tonight. We hope your pain will ease shortly and you will find comfort knowing your Mother is at peace with our Savior.

“ Gail/Rhett:
To both of you I send my love and true feelings at our loss. She meant so much to me over my life and was always so kind to Daddy (Hess?) Never figured that one out.

Love you both and you know it.
