“ I remember Mrs. Bell, I went to school with Kay and when I would come over she always had a smile, always saw the bright side of things. She was the sweetest person. I just want Kay and her family to know they are in my prayers.

I am just today finding out about this. I loved being around Mrs. Bell. Her daughter Lynn was my best friend from 1st grade until we moved to Miami. So sad to see this.

“ Sending love and prayers to your family. I always remember that Sister Bell had a beautiful singing voice and that she was a great mother and teacher. I grew up with this family. Till We Meet Again.

“ I have a few memories of Aunt Eva when I was younger, but my favorite came as an adult traveling home to Augusta with my mom and later, my dad. I loved sitting and listening to the family stories and singing songs with her. Even though it had been many years in-between visits, she always made me feel at home. I also enjoyed talking geneology with her. But the one thing that has always stood out to me was the loving way in which she cared for Grandma Price. I will miss her greatly. My prayers and love go out to the family. Love Ya, Angee (Vee's daughter)

“ My earliest memory of Eva was a visit to her house when the dogwoods were in bloom after driving all the way across the country with my family. I couldn't believe all the flowering trees and dense foliage and I walked up and down that road many times, just a child from the desert in awe of all the life flowing everywhere. Eva was like that, she was an oasis of love in even the hardest times. She has had to deal with so much pain and so many disasters but she was never bitter, never unkind. That's what I will always remember about her, that oasis feeling that I got from my visits. And how resilient she was regardless of the various kinds of deserts lurking all about. She was like her flowering trees, she bloomed in defiance, and I feel selfish for missing her when I was always the one in need of an oasis.

But I have my tears today, that will be enough.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. It's never easy to lose a parent. I loved Coming to Georgia with my mother Arlene and listen to the Price sisters sit around, reflect on the past and giggle. She always had a warm welcoming spirit.

“ David and Michael - so sorry to hear about Eva. We spoke only occasionally the last few years, but when we did, we could catch right up. I remember your friendship with Chris and Valerie when we lived on Heard Avenue. Chris has been gone many years now, but I remember him and David asking me to make Val and Michael quit following them around all the time.
