“ Nanny was a woman full of love. She loved her family and she had tons of pictures to prove it. I remember going to the lake and fishing with her and Papa when I was little. One of the things I remember plain as day is the El Camino she drove when I was real little. Nanny, Aunt Judy, and Heather would ride in the front while Wendy and I would side behind the seat going to the Regency Mall. I believe with all my heart this woman is walking down the streets of gold hand to hand with her husband happy and healthy.
