“ Dear George, Parker, Mary and families,
Pete and I have made sure that all the Frommer's have been told of your mother's passing. Speaking for all of the Frommer family, we are saddened by your loss and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Your mom and dad are such a large part of our happy childhood memories. We all remember the wonderful times we spent at your home in North Augusta. We so looked forward to those visits. I have taken my children to your parents home and they laugh when I tell them that we used to pile in the car with pillows and snacks (like we were going on some LONG trip) to visit Mr. and Mrs. Shaw's "farm in the country". I can still hear your dad's deep voice as I imagine him sitting in "his" chair. I remember he was a man of few words, but let me tell you, when he talked we LISTENED! I can still hear your mom's Maine accent as I imagine her working in her kitchen getting all the food ready for the huge meal that she would set up on tables outside and in what I remember as a basement. We feel blessed to have known your mom and dad. They were much loved by the entire Frommer family. I did visit your mom at the nursing home. I was never really sure if she remembered me or not, but I sat and reminisced with her hoping that she did. With sympathy, gratitude and love, Terry Frommer Muniz###imported-begin##Terry Frommer Muniz (Dr. and Mrs. Leo Muniz - Aiken)###imported-end##

“ My deepest regrets to her family. Heaven just got another few watts of light added when she arrived.

She was one of the most influential people in my life and taught me early on in life what standards are and to always do your best to meet them. She was one of our nation's greatest "Yankee Doodle Dandees"!!! This was one our favorite little banterings between each other.

May God bless each of her surviving family members a special way like she always blessed us with her presence.##imported-begin##Frank Eubanks##imported-end##

When you were around her you knew you were in the presence of someone truly truly special. Heaven is blessed to have her.##imported-begin##Julie Kendall Plymale##imported-end##
