“ Aunt Fay truly loved life and lived it to the fullest. She was always such a joy to be around. I will never forget the trips to North Augusta where we would laugh, visit and eat! She made everyone feel like family. I have been blessed to be a part of this amazing family. I love you all and I will be praying for strength and healing,

Never a dull moment with Aunt Fay. She was ALWAYS full of joy and ready to cut fool with anyone. I am sure ALL her brothers and sister are sharing moments of laughter and joy as I write this note. She will be missed by many.

There are very few people that really make a difference in one's life. Most can count on their fingers who merit this honor. Fay was one such person; her love of life and sense of humor will forever touch my heart. She was like a sister to my Mom and a second Mom to me, family by association. She was always caring and supportive no matter what crazy things I did. She loved me, and I her. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her.....

I enjoyed playing bridge at her house and finding out we were married the same year and shared the same china and everyday dishes! She was a pleasure to talk with, when we ran into each other! My thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time! God Bless!

I feel privileged to have been able to call Fay "Aunt Fay". We are "related" through my wife, Joanne, who is a niece of T.J. and Fay. I don't know if Fay and T.J. ever understood what an impact they had on my life. While serving in the Army, I was twice assigned to attend schools at Fort Gordon. Separated from wife, family and friends, the opportunity to scoot across the river to visit Fay, T.J. and their daughters was a mental life saver (not to mention the home cooking!). Although I'm sure my too frequent presence was an imposition, I was always greeted at the door with a big smile and warm welcome. Anyone who knows them knows exactly what I'm talking about. Although we rarely had a chance to see each other over the years, Jo and I will certainly miss her and think of her often.

I was so glad we had our get-to-gather Nov.4th. Faye was her usual witty, fun loving self, I will always remember her that way. She was very special. I will soely miss her. My deepest sympathy to the family.
