Gran.. It is undeniable how much you will truly be missed. It is unmistakable how many lives you truly touched, Mine included.. I am glad you are in a better place now, where the aches and pains of this world no longer can drag you down, Where you can rejoice in gods presence with your Husband and family, we will see you when it is indeed our time, Until those times arrive, do your best to keep an eye over all of us, no one can have too many guardian Angels, and by far, God called the best one home.... Rest in Peace.

“ Gran when I look at the birds I will always think of you.....you taught me so much about them and how beautiful they are...the flowers, nature in general...I will never forget sitting out back with you drinking coffee and watching them and the squirrels....or how the humming birds use to like to flutter around your head.... You would go out there to read the paper but never get finished reading out there because you were start watching nature at its finest....I know you were carried to heaven on the wings of those birds. Love you Always, Rosanne

Susan, I didn't know your Mom but I wanted to leave a candle to help light the way for her. Losing a Mom is so hard. My mother died 2006 and not a day goes by that I don't think about her. My friendship and love will be with you and also my prayers to help give you strength to help you through this time. Kristy

You loved with all that was in you, and those around you are blessed because of you. Godspeed on the wings of angels. I love you and will miss you dearly.*
