“ The day that I turned 9 years old, my family moved next door to the Cooks. I was welcomed with a loving smile from Mrs. Cook on that day and every other time I stepped foot into that house. That same year, this same 9 year old also had to inform Mrs. Cook that her own dear mother, Mrs. Rowe (Maw), had passed away; even then she was kind and gracious to me. As I have often commented to others over these years, I never heard an ill word come from her mouth or heard her voice raised. This proved to me that she was happy and pure from the heart. Every life that she touched is honored to have known someone so beautiful.

“ My mother, my friend, beautiful soul from beginning to end.

*Vital spark of heav'nly flame!
Quit, O quit this mortal frame:
Trembling, hoping, ling'ring, flying,
O the pain, the bliss of dying!*

*Cease fond Nature, cease thy strife,
And let me languish into life.*

*Hark! they whisper; angels say,
Sister Spirit, come away!
What is this absorbs me quite?
Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
Drowns my spirits, draws my breath?
Tell me my soul, can this be death?*

*The world recedes; it disappears!
Heav'n opens on my eyes! my ears
With sounds seraphic ring!
Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly!
O grave! where is thy victory?
O death! where is thy sting?*

(Poem of Alexander Pope)

“ When my family moved here from Illinois, Susie and I met Sandra and Marilyn at school. They were two of our first friends. Mrs. Cook was very sweet to us when we came to the house to spend time with our friends. My prayers are with you and your family and I am sure Mrs. Cook is in her heavenly place!

“ Grandma will be remembered always for her spirit of love and kindness her whole life. She loved God, Grandpa, her children and family. She loved life and always felt at ease because of her deep faith, it was a comfort to be in her presence because of that. Along with her family, her passions were her Church and cooking wonderful meals. Everyone that had the pleasure to share a meal at her table during her lifetime will always remember the food. She prepared it with such love and pleasure. Over the years she started her own tradition to provide for our birthdays, a meal at her table or a wonderful dish delivered on your special day. What a treat. We all loved you Grandma, and that you knew. You will be missed dearly. What a beautiful life, you gave each of us a big part of it and we will cherish our memories of you.

My sweet sweet Aunt Francis, I will miss you so. I loved talking with you. You always was there for me when I was in need. Even though you had twelve children, you still had room for me. After talking to you I always felt better. You will always be in my heart. R.I.P.

“ I love you so much and I am going to miss you dearly! I know that grandpa was waiting for you with open arms in heaven. You have been such an inspiration to all of us and gave us so much love. The world was definately a better place with you in it!! We will all be together again one day but until then we will try to live by your example. I could not have asked for a better grandmother. I will carry you in my heart until I see you again.

“ I met Mrs. Cook when I was about 7, I think. I fell in love with the entire family. Also Maw, their Grandmother. Sarah and I became best friends. I grew up with them all and loved them. I remember Joan teaching Sarah and I how to do the stroll and other dances. I always had so much fun at their house. Mrs. Cook was always so sweet and loving. I am so saddened to hear of their loss. I pray for comfort and peace for the whole family. God be with and bless you all...
