“ *Geraldine, Steve, Richard and Elizabeth,
I have many wonderful memories of both Frances and Mrs.
Livingston. And of course I always enjoyed seeing you, Geraldine, Steve and Richard, when our paths crossed at their home in Beech Island. We still have descendents of the purple Widow's Tears Mrs.
Livingston gave me almost 40 years ago and my first African violet came from her, as well. The last time I saw Frances, she walked through the yard with Mom and me when we stopped by to see her - we had a great visit. She was a wonderful person!
My thoughts and prayers are with each of you as you celebrate Frances' life and mourn your loss.##imported-begin##Bob

“ *Dear Geraldine, Steve, Richard, Elizabeth, My heart is saddened to learn of Frances death. I always loved her and will miss talking and visiting with her on the phone. There are few people that we can ever call true friends but I always knew she was one of my true friends. Please know that my heart and sympathy is with you. Love, “ Hi Geraldine, Knowing how fragile "Livingston" was didn't prepare me for Ellie's call. I am so sad but all I can think of is how thankful I am that Rebecca's friend was also my friend. I pray for you as I remember the good times. Love, Mary Ellen##imported-begin##Mary Ellen C. Brigman##imported-end##

“ Ms. Frances will be dearly missed by me and my family. We were her neighbors on Kendall Drive and thought that she was really special. Our thoughts are with her sister Ms. Geraldine at this time.##imported-begin##Stephanie Sawyer##imported-end##
