“ I looked beyond the stars one night and prayed up to our guiding light. And as I walked, I began to say, “For I know that you are always with me and you have provided me so much; but now my sweet Lord I need to feel your touch. Guide me please...do not let me fall. Please give me the strength to endure all. All those things coming and all those things passed. Please take my hand Lord and guide my way fast.”

For I felt that I would be the only one to speak as so many times before, but as I walked along the shore of this lonely beach my guiding light began to speak.

“My dear child, I have guided you all this way, and I will continue to walk with you through every step of your living and spirit days. Do not doubt your strength, for you will not fall. For you see, you hold and believe in my spirit; and this my child will allow you to endure all.
