“ I am a dear friend of Mr. Frank Puckett. I was privileged to meet Frank after the death of my brother, Clyde. Frank and Mae met some time after Clyde's death. They met and became friends after the death of their spouses. Being a pastor, I was later asked to officiate at their wedding. I was privileged to perform their wedding and be a part of their lives for the next 15 years. Frank and I became very dear friends. The last time I visited Frank he shared these words with me. “ Bob, you are one of the dearest friends I have ever had!” I remember these words:” A friend loves at all times!” Bob loved you Frank!”
